

REGISTRAR 101 Pre-Conference Workshop scheduled at the PACRAO 2009 Annual Conference in Newport Beach, CA
Sunday, November 1, 2009 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Join your colleagues at REGISTRAR 101 and get the tools you'll need in your new position as a registrar!

This workshop is designed to provide new registrars and registrar staff persons with an overview of the profession, a network of contacts, and a databank of information sources. It will include presentations by experienced registrars and breakout discussions. Modules will include: The Role of the Registrar, Nuts and Bolts (A Semester in the Life of a Registrar), Information Sources for Registrars, and FERPA. This workshop is a consistent top-rated offering at AACRAO annual meetings, SEM conferences, and as a stand-alone workshop around the country.

Here's what an attendee from last year said:

"The seminar was very informative. It was great meeting other registrars and sharing information and solutions regarding the registrar's office."
